ALLOW ME TO INTRODUCE MYSELF...

I am a twenty-year old philosophy student who is interested in cultivating new experiences in the workplace. I am an adaptable worker who is able to take initiative, but also comply and go beyond what is expected of me.

My strengths lie in working with people - which is exemplified by my sincere enthusiasm, and precise communication skills.

JOBS AND VOLUNTEERING

RETAIL SALES ASSISTANT AT FOPP NOTTINGHAM, 2013.

My first job was a seasonal vacancy at the age of sixteen in Nottingham's music, film and book store Fopp. My duties included providing first contact with customers, processing transactions, ordering specific requests and stocking items. I approached this job with great enthusiasm since it included working with my passions - the arts.

VOLUNTEER AT OXFAM GOOSGEGATE: 2013-2014.

I intended to gain work experience, so I volunteered to work at Oxfam Goosegate. This was an eccentric charity shop since it was in the epicentre of Nottingham's trendiest areas. My duties included processing transactions, steaming clothes people had generously donated, before pricing and tagging them.

PROJECTS & AWARDS

SILVER ARTS AWARD: BFI FILM ACADEMY, 2015.

I co-operated with several peers in the film industry to produce a short film which would then be screened at our local independent theatre, Broadway Cinema. We were taught by industry leading professionals and were given access to professional film equipment. Upon completion of this, I was awarded a silver arts award.

MUSIC PRODUCTION.

Alongside my academic pursuits, I am constantly independently learning music production software such as Ableton Live to produce an eclectic range of music. I plan to release my first creative project after I have graduated at university, but release free content on my SoundCloud page. This venture has allowed me the opportunity to exercise my creativity and collaborative skills.
